Automatic Coke Charger Part of Settlement by GC Steel, State Agency

Cleaner air for the bi-state metropolitan area will be the result of an agreement today between the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and Granite City Steel Co.

The agreement, settlement of an EPA complaint, calls for a $4,000,000 air pollution control program developed by the company and the establishment of a $150,000 University of Illinois environmental studies scholarship fund.

The settlement was negotiated with the assistance of the office of Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott and signed by Illinois EPA Director William L. Blaser and by Granite City Steel Vice-President Donald F. Cairns.

The agreement has been submitted for approval to the Illinois Pollution Control Board.

The EPA complaint charged the steel company with air pollution law violations dating back to 1967. Pollution Control Board hearings in the case began last May.

Granite City Steel also has agreed to post a total of $3,570,000 in surety bonds to guarantee performance of the $4,000,000 program, which calls for the installation of pollution control equipment at the company's coke ovens, blast furnaces and sinter plant.

Principal elements in the steel company's pollution control program are to be designed, installed and brought into operation at various times in the next 30 months, including:

1. An "American Iron and Steel Institute Coke Oven Charging Air Quality Control System" with an advanced new charging car will cost approximately $2,250,000.
2. Granite City Steel authorized the Koppers Co., Pittsburgh, last spring to proceed with engineering for this system.
3. It will replace the present, largely manual coke charging operation with an automatic process which includes creation of a partial vacuum in the ovens to hold in smoke and gases during the removal of lids on the oven top and charging of coal.

Engineering contracts have now been let and long-delivered electrical equipment has been ordered.

The recently developed AISI system for controlling smoke and dust emissions from coke ovens during charging is considered to be the most modern in the world.

2. Improvements in the maintenance program for alloy steel, knife-edge, self-sealing coke oven doors and the purchase of additional spare doors and door seals will cost $60,000.
3. A quench car water fogging system will be installed at a cost of about $60,000 to reduce emissions which occur when coke is pushed from an oven into the air and bursts into flames.
4. A system of baffles will be installed at a cost of about $120,000 in the coke quench tower, where water sprays pour down on the burning coke once it has been pushed from the oven into a waiting quench car.

The baffles will reduce the volume of water vapor, which may contain coke dust, escaping into the atmosphere during the coke quenching operation.

Although not part of today's agreement, Granite City Steel also expects to achieve further reduction in dust and smoke emissions from its coking operations through the additional expenditure, now under way, of nearly $3,000,000 for major repairs at two of the company's three batteries of coke ovens.

Metalurgical coke, produced by the controlled heating of blends of low sulphur coal in long, high, narrow ovens without enough air present for the coal to burn, is the fuel used

News Notes

Simon, Pucinski Win Party Nod

A resident of this county, Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon, won the state making subcommittee's endorsement in Chicago Sunday to be the Democratic candidate for governor.

Simon is a strong favorite over Daniel Walker and the November election over Governor Richard B. Ogilvie, Republican.

With State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon of nearby St. Clair County and Congressman Roman Pucinski of Chicago both seeking slating to run against U. S. Senator Charles Percy (R), the subcommittee seemed most impressed by Dixon but instead backed Pucinski to achieve geographic balance for the top two state ballot positions.

Dean Barringer of Anna was chosen for comptroller. Chicagoans fill out the rest of the slate—Neil Hartigan for lieutenant governor, State Auditor Michael J. Howlett for secretary of state and State Sen. Thomas Lyons for attorney general.

Despite his big campaign fund, Thomas J. Foran, former U. S. attorney, was not slated for any office.

Early completion of present Main Landfill dumping, with possibly a truck terminal established atop it, was predicted at a public meeting Thursday night in Edwardsville.

Santa's cabin, 1315 Niedringhaus Ave., is accepting letters and visits from children. It is open 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, noon to 8 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Many of the downtown Granite City stores will be open every night except Saturday starting tonight. Sunday store hours will be noon to 5 p.m. Dec. 12 and Dec. 19.

Two Slain Men Found In Venice

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

The bodies of two men who had been murdered in apparent unrelated incidents were found in Venice Friday. Police and FBI investigations into the deaths began immediately.

The victims were identified as Benton Eugene McCallister, 21, of Collinsville, and James Conners, 23, of University City, Mo.

Mr. McCallister was found lying in an ash pit under the Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad tracks a half-mile north of Broadway on the east side of County Road. The pit formerly was used to dump coal cars.

Harold Koelker Jr., 201 Hampton St., Venice, a school custodian, discovered the body at 10:45 a.m. Friday and drove to the McKinley Bridge Office, from where he notified Venice police.

Mr. McCallister was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner Edward Werner.

An autopsy was performed. Death was attributed to a .38-caliber bullet wound behind the left ear and may have occurred at the scene a few hours before he was found.

Police sifted through the ashes in the pit in an effort to find clues. Stains, believed to be blood, were found on the concrete walls of the pit.

The body was identified by the victim's uncle, Ernest Bell of St. Louis.

As police were searching for clues in the McCallister case, they received a report (Continued on page 8, col. 7)

Byron, Lucas Endorsed

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A ticket of 26 Democratic candidates for state, district and county offices was endorsed by the executive board of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee last night in a meeting that followed a three-day battle of the organization's screening committee.

The organization-backed slate — spearheaded by state candidates who were endorsed earlier Sunday by the state Democratic Party slating subcommittee — included candidates for five Madison County offices.

Among them was the endorsement of Ronald Lucas, mayor of Maryville, as candidate for recorder of deeds, an office for which a three-way battle in the Democratic ticket was reported developing during the weekend.

Petitions as candidates for that office also have been obtained by Von Dee Cruse of Granite City and Robert Zitt of Rosewood Heights. Incumbent Democratic Recorder James Chapman has announced he will not seek re-election.

The endorsement of a state's attorney, an office now held by Republican R.

W. Griffith, went to Mick Byron of Edwardsville. The organization will support Thomas Burke of Alton as a candidate for Madison County coroner, an office now held by another Republican, Robert Thomas of Granite City.

Willard Partell, incumbent clerk of the circuit court, and John Kravay, incumbent county auditor, were endorsed in their bids for re-election.

Circuit Judge John Gilchof of Venice, now serving by appointment, was endorsed as a candidate for election to a full term.

At the district level, the executive board approved endorsement of incumbent State Senator Sam Vadalabene of Edwardsville and incumbent State Representative Horace Calvo and Leland J. Kennedy in the 56th District, which includes the Quad-City area.

For representative committee members in the 36th District, endorsements went to John Paulovich of Wood River and Christ Costoff of Madison.

State candidates endorsed by the committee's executive board included: Paul Simon, Troy, for governor; Neil Hartgan, Chicago, lieutenant-governor; Roman C. Pucinski, Chicago, U.S. senator; Michael J. Howlett, Chicago, now state auditor for secretary of state; Dean Barringer, Anna, comptroller, and Thomas Lyons, Chicago, attorney general.

Congressman Melvin E. Price of East St. Louis was endorsed for re-election.

Other endorsements: For state senator, Jerry Corbett in the 49th District and James DeWitt in the 53rd District. State representatives: Harold Stedlin and Don Brummet in the 55th district, and Ken Dayles and John Sharp in the 49th District.

Representative committee: Dewey Van Dyke of Colton in the 53rd District and J.H. Augustine in the 49th District.

The county Democratic organization's screening committee interviewed more than 30 potential candidates in meetings held Friday and Saturday and again yesterday before the executive board convened. All meetings were held at Sunset Hill Holiday Inn.

Father-Son, Four Brothers Listed in 'Yule Mail Call'

A father and son, both of whom are in Vietnam, two sets of brothers in military service and a local GI who returned yesterday to Vietnam, where he has already spent 3½ years, are listed in today's "Yule Mail Call."

Relatives and friends of Quad-City servicemen and women are invited to submit their names and addresses to "Yule Mail Call" for publication in subsequent issues.

To ensure accuracy, those contributing addresses are asked to include the serviceman's full name, rank, serial number and APO or FPO when applicable. The area of service will be listed in parenthesis following the address when noted.

The information should be written on a postal card or slip of paper and mailed or brought to the Press-Record office, 1815 Delmar Ave.

Readers are urged to clip the lists as they appear, adding the servicemen's names to their Christmas mailing lists.

Specialist Four James H. Rehms Jr. left yesterday for Vietnam after spending a 30-day leave at home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loretta Downs, 2303 Grand Ave.

3½ Years Overseas
Spec. 4 Rehms, 24, initially was assigned to Vietnam in May 1966. He has spent a total of 3½ years on duty there, involving three separate tours of duty. He recently extended his current duty tour an additional six months.

The local serviceman will report today at Newport Base, an American facility located outside of Saigon, where he is assigned to the 71st Transportation Battalion.
Spec. 4 Rehms is a graduate of the Granite City system and and entered the Army in April 1965.

Brothers Listed

Brothers listed in today's "Yule Mail Call" are Marine Corporal Charles Cooper on duty in Europe and Sergeant Terry Cooper serving with the U. S. Air Force at Williams AFB in Arizona.

Also included are the Seitzer brothers. Sergeant D. Kenneth Seitzer, 23, with his wife, the former Miss Denise Marrit, and 12-month-old daughter, Camille, are in Turkey. The sergeant, now in his second four-year enlistment period, was joined in Turkey by his wife and child in March.

A younger brother, Airman Daniel K. Seitzer, 19, is based at Chanute AFB. He enlisted in September for four years and will be a qualified electronics/ weather specialist upon completion of a course at the Illinois air base.

Father, Son Overseas
One of the more unusual twosomes presently serving in Vietnam is a local GI and his father.

They are Specialist Four Robert Newman, who is with the 29th Engineer Battalion at Da Nang, and his father, Dwight R. Newman of Granite City, a heavy equipment specialist who is stationed in the vicinity of Binh Long in the Mekong Delta region of South Vietnam.

Newman, a civil service employee with the U. S. Army Mobility Equipment Command (MECOM), is inspecting construction, equipment and other huge building machinery at depot centers in the southern portion of Vietnam. Several Engineer Construction Battalions are headquartered in the area.

It is Newman's second tour of duty in Vietnam; he completed the first one in 1967.
Spec. 4 Newman, a 1967 graduate of Granite City High School, attended SIU-SW two years prior to joining the Army in June 1967.

He received training at Fort Knox, Ky., and Fort Belvoir, Ill., and was sent to Germany, where he remained eight months until volunteering to serve in Vietnam.

The soldier was assigned to Southeast Asia in October and his father arrived there last month.

According to the latest letter, Mrs. Newman said, the father and son have not yet been in contact—at least up to last week.

Friends Asked to Provide 12% of College's Funds

McKendree College is asking friends and alumni to contribute 12% of its $1,908,000 budget for 1971-72, Duane Amburn, director of development, has reported. The percentage is much less than private colleges have to ask, he said.

Amburn said 9,500 booklets are being mailed to friends and alumni. They thank the 1,907 contributors to the 1970-71 operating budget and list them on their roll of honor. The booklets explain the determination of the college to operate on a balanced budget.

Of the $250,000 goal, $60,000 is being raised by the trustees, Amburn said. Faculty, administration and friends also are helping.

Amburn pointed out that the administration and faculty had foregone pay increases in the effort to balance the budget, and that many were taking on additional chores voluntarily to help down costs. "We are working together to give the most return possible for every educational dollar," Amburn said.

The booklet contains appeals by Dr. Eric Rackham, president of McKendree College, and Roger Jensen of Taylorville, president of the McKendree College Alumni Association, for continued and broadened support. Last year, 29% of the contributors gave for the first time.

Jensen pointed out that McKendree, 143 years old, is the last private college in Illinois south of Interstate 70. "It is making an important contribution to the community, and must be preserved and developed," he said.

Those who do not receive the booklet but who would like to help McKendree should send contributions directly to the college development office, Amburn said. Their names will be added to next year's roll of honor and they will receive a tax deductible gift receipt.

Speaking of the responsibility of the college to help every student develop to the fullest of his capabilities, Dr. Rackham said, "This is a grave responsibility, obviously, and can only be achieved if we have the generous understanding and support of our alumni and friends."

McKendree College is affiliated with The United Methodist Church, which helps support the college through its Southern Illinois Conference.

MRS. JAMES R. BORTH JR., the former Miss Linda Sue Bohannon, a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. William Bohannon of Roxana. Her wedding was Saturday at the Roxana Church of the Nazarene.

Miss Linda Bohannon, James Borth Are Wed

Miss Linda Sue Bohannon and James Russell Borth Jr., were united in marriage Saturday evening at the Church of the Nazarene in Roxana, with the Rev. Herbert Merritt officiating, assisted by the bride's father, the Rev. William Bohannon.

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the church and lighted candelabra illuminated the sanctuary for the 7 o'clock ceremony. Alan Bogovich presided at the organ for Jerry Doyle as he sang several wedding selections.

The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. William Bohannon, 25 Bert Ave., East Alton. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Borth Sr., reside at 1824 Joy Ave.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown fashioned of organza over brilliant tulle, featuring an Empire waistline encircled with Venice lace with a satin ribbon insertion. Designed with a high neckline of lace, the gown had full puffed sleeves cuffed in matching lace.

The wattle chapel train of organza was embellished with Venice lace inserts. Inserts were repeated on the bodice front and cascaded down the semi-bell skirt.

She wore a camelot hat of organza, trimmed with Venice lace, to secure a waist length veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Rick Wells, matron of honor, Miss Debbie Bohannon, a sister of the bride, bridesmaid and Miss Pam Grimm, the bride's cousin, as junior maid were dressed in similar gowns.

They wore formal length dresses of pink georgette over tulle with burgundy velvet bodices designed with high necklines and puffed sleeves of georgette cuffed with matching velvet.

Burgundy velvet bows held in place their pink illusion veils and each carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds.

The bridegroom chose his cousin, Gary Embick, as best man to serve with Don Johnson and Gilbert Borth, his brother, as groomsmen. Ushers were Edward Weston, Dave Rosenberg and Mike Monroe.

A reception was given immediately following the ceremony at the Rox-Arena in Roxana.

The newly married bride, Broth, a 1970 graduate of Roxana High School, is employed as a legal secretary for Burroughs, Simpson and Wilson law firm in Edwardsville.

Mrs. Borth was graduated in 1968 from Granite City High School and is a senior year student at SIU-SW, where he is majoring in history. He is employed at the Tri-City Grocery warehouse in Granite City.

The couple will make their home at 3009 Gaslight Walk, after a wedding trip.

Bunko-Ettes Meet With Mrs. Batson

Mrs. Batson served a candle-light supper to the prize winners and to Mesdames Helen Lipchik, Angie Buehler, Juanita Blevins, Helen Santiago, Leo Delloye, Rose Druhe and Dorothy Barnett.

Mrs. Barnett will be hostess at the Jan. 13 meeting to be held at the home of her mother, Mrs. Isiah Hughes, 602 Kirkpatrick Homes.

Sausagemaking This Week At St. John Lutheran

One of the busiest days of the year for members of St. John Lutheran Church will occur Friday followed, hopefully, by an equally an energetic period the day afterward.

The occasion is the annual sausagemaking project, a sale—a project which involves the entire congregation of the church and produces a total of 1,500 pounds of good homemade sausage each year.

Results from Friday's day of labor will be in evidence Saturday, when the public is invited to the church, located at St. Clair and Dale avenues, to purchase the link sausage.

Mrs. Betty Hackney, one of the organizers of the sausage project this year, said the meat —obtainable in garlic flavor or plain, is sold at 85 cents per pound.

Asked whether a secret recipe is used, Mrs. Hackney, laughed, but didn't say what the sausage contains. She noted, however, the sale has been very successful over the years with many of the same patrons returning each December. Advance orders will be accepted by calling 877-3341.

The sausage sale is in progress, the young people of St. John Lutheran Church will sponsor a chili supper, starting at 11 a.m. Saturday. Customers purchasing the sausage also are invited to patronize the teenagers' chili stand, Mrs. Hackney said.

St. John's Afternoon Guild Marks Birthdays

Festive Christmas decorations of ornament and greenery centered with lighted holiday candles, provided the setting for the annual Yule party of St. John's Afternoon Guild, held Thursday in Fellowship Hall.

A dessert luncheon was served at noon from tables attractively appointed in the Yuletide theme to 44 members and two guests, Mrs. Edna Martin of Springfield, Ill., and Mrs. Sylvia Simpson of Granite City.

Mrs. Louise Brinkhoff and a committee, were in charge.

During the luncheon hour, Mrs. Amanda Deutschman was presented with a gift in honor of becoming a Golden Age member.

Also honored were members celebrating birthdays in December.

They are Mesdames Tallen Becker, Ethel Holyscher, Clara Redmond, Lida Theis and Amanda Deutschman.

The Rev. Paul Surbey opened the business meeting with prayer. Mrs. LaVerne Krauskopf and Mrs. Marie Wilk were in charge of the program entitled, "Christmas Meditation."

Others assisting in the program were Mrs. Eileen Anderson, at the piano, and readers, Miss Minnie Krauskopf and Mesdames Emma Branding, Grace Branding, Ellen Ehler, Helen Schaefer, Lydia Wilk, Marie Wolfe and Marie Widows.

The meeting concluded with the Fellowship of the Least Coin and a circle of prayer.

MARRIED AT HOSPITAL. Specialist Five and Mrs. James J. McClure, who were married in an afternoon ceremony in the chapel of St. Mary's Hospital, Richmond Heights, Mo. The bride is the former Miss Barbara Ann Hill, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hill, 2605 Missouri Ave.

McClure-Hill Nuptials At St. Mary's Hospital

Miss Barbara Ann Hill and Specialist Five James J. McClure, U.S. Army, were united in marriage in an unusual setting Nov. 27. The ceremony was performed in the chapel of St. Mary's Hospital in Richmond Heights, Mo.

The young serviceman, who is stationed in Germany, was called home on an emergency leave due to his father's illness and arrangements were completed for a wedding in the hospital chapel so Mr. Arnold B. McClure could attend.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hill, 2605 Missouri Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold B. McClure, 1800 Market St., Madison.

Arrangements of white mums and gladioli decorated the chapel for the 2:30 afternoon ceremony performed by the Rev. Walter J. Fuchs.

The bride selected for her wedding, a gown of French designed, scalloped nylon Chantelle lace tiers formed the skirt and gracefully swept into a chapel train.

The long lace sleeves ending in ruffles at the wrist were set in a fitted bodice and a matching ruffle trimmed the round neckline.

A forward headpiece of lace petals embellished with ivory seed pearls held in place a double tiered veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of white hydrangeas intermingled with lily of the valley and festooned with white satin ribbon and bows.

Miss Florence Bonds, the only attendant, chose a formal gown of orange chiffon over taffeta and designed with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and A-line skirt. She wore a picture hat and carried a cascade bouquet of orange and rust-colored mums.

Fred Hill attended the groom as best man.

An open house reception was held in the McClure home for over 50 guests immediately following the ceremony. Miss Bobbie Noud, a niece of the groom, presided at the guest book.

The bride, a graduate of Granite City High School, is employed at Safeco Plastics in Granite City. Spec. 5 McClure was graduated from Madison High School.

The couple will make their home at 1800 Market St., Madison.

An additional $100 was presented by the troopers to the Shriners Burn Center transportation fund.

Troopers Present Gift To Shriners' Hospital

A visit to Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in St. Louis County was a happy occasion for representatives of Illinois State Troopers Lodge 41, who made the trip to present a total of $600 to the hospital administrators.

A $500 "Gold Bond" was presented by the troopers to the hospital's "Bonds for Braces" fund, and an additional $100 was added to the Transportation Fund which helps defray expenses incurred in transferring youthful patients to the Shriners Burns Center in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The gift from Lodge 41 was made possible, to a great extent, through public support of the second annual "Troopers Ball," a spokesman for the state police organization reported.

The "Gold Bond" was purchased with funds derived from the dance held in May at the Bel-Clair Exposition Hall, located at the St. Clair County Fairgrounds in Belleville.

Lodge 41 officials already are planning their third benefit ball, set for May 6, 1972 at the newly enlarged Exposition Hall, and have signed the renowned "Sammy Kaye Orchestra" for the event.

Illinois troopers taking part in the check presentation at Shriners Hospital were William Simpson of Granite City and Jimmie C. Bivens, John Oldani Jr., and Clarence Funke, all of Collinsville.

Accepting the gift were Warren R. Betts, hospital administrator for Ainal Shrine Temple; and Wayne Banks and Michael Macek, vice president and secretary, respectively, of the Ainal Hospital Unit.

Mrs. Mary Lou Simmons, worthy high priestess, and John De Hart, watchman of shepherds, will preside at a regular meeting of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, at 7:30 p.m., Thursday at the Masonic Temple.

COLLINSVILLE VOLKSWAGEN
1822 VANDALIA STREET
COLLINSVILLE 345-5500

It was a good game in every way but the final score as the Granite City High School basketball Warriors lost their first Southwestern Conference game of the season Friday on the new Collinsville Kahok floor 61-60.

With three seconds left on the clock Warrior Kevin Dyer missed his second free throw which would have tied the score. Kahok Bob Bone took the rebound and held onto the ball for the narrow victory.

The first quarter ended in a 12-12 tie, but the Kahoks broke loose to outscore the Warriors 22-16 to gain a halftime lead of 34-28.

Collinsville again bettered the Warriors in third quarter points 17-14, but GCHS came alive in the final period to top the Kahoks 18-10.

The Warriors were behind as many as 11 points at one time 34-27.

Collinsville led in rebounds in the third quarter.

"Rebounding is one of our major weaknesses that we have got to overcome," Warrior Coach Don Deterding said. "Last year Mike DeRuntz kept us out of hot water on the backboards, but as of yet we don't have anybody to handle them well."

The Warriors could not seem to find the basket until the third quarter as they only hit 38% from the floor.

Dyer cut loose on the inside and tallied 23 points, accounting for 14 of the Warriors first 16 points. The Kahok defense put the pressure on Terry Ripka, who also tagged 23 points, leaving Dyer open. The defense against Ripka was effective as he had been averaging more than 30 points a game.

The Kahoks had all five of their starters from last year returning to the floor, and they are now 2-1 in the new season. It was the first Warrior loss in three games.

Other Warriors scoring were Joe Wallace and Bob Wiggins with five points each and Rick Prehn with four.

Collinsville had 23 field goals and 15 free throws compared to GCHS with 21 from the floor and 18 from the charity line.

The two teams tied on fouls 19-19.

"You can't cry over a game Don Deterding said. "Last year Mike DeRuntz kept us out of doing between now and Friday is spending a lot of time on rebounding and our defense.

"What the Collinsville game boils down to is simply we played three bad quarters and finally started playing basketball in the fourth quarter.

"It looks like Ripka will have to be the man to save us on our rebounds. Terry is only getting about seven a game, and this will have to improve to in the teens.

"Friday we play Belleville West here and it will be the toughest man-to-man defense we have seen. They play a real aggressive game. Then we have to meet East St. Louis Saturday here. They have four men of 64 or better, and are probably the best rebounders in the area. We have got some real work cut out for us coming up."

Game time Friday and Saturday is 8:15 p.m., with junior varsity tilts at 6:30 p.m.

Bills Whammy Cougar Squad In Midwest Finale by 3-1

St. Louis University's whammy over the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern soccer team continued Saturday as the Bills beat the Cougars 3-1 in the finals of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Midwest tournament.

The result broke the hearts of a majority of the 10,000-plus fans who crowded nearly every available inch of space at Cougar field.

In turning back the rugged Cougar kickers of Coach Bob Guelker, St. Louis University's defending national NCAA champions gained the right to represent the Midwest in the field of four at Miami's Orange Bowl on Dec. 31 and 30. The Bills of Coach Harry Keough will be seeking their third straight NCAA soccer crown; they have won eight of the 12 soccer titles since the sport was given varsity status 13 years ago.

The Bills struck first, scoring at 8:32 into the second quarter on a goal by Joe Hamm on an assist by Tim Logush. The score came with dramatic suddenness after a hard-fought and scoreless first period in which the Bills clearly had the initiative, outshooting the Cougars 10-3.

Score Tied
And, when John Carenza of SIU-SW evened the score at 1-1 on an assist from Vince Fassi, the fans and the occupants of the press box jumped to the thought that the Cougars might be going to give the Bills some of their own medicine.

In the two teams last games, the Cougars had jumped out to a 1-0 lead and held it until the final eight minutes only to see St. Louis rally to win, both times, 2-1.

About two minutes after Carenza had deked the Cougars, the Bills surged back into the lead on a difficult, and amazing, goal by Denny Hadican on a pass from Bob O'Leary. Not more than three minutes later, the Cougar fans thought it was another tied ball game when their outside left sophomore Tom Twellman, appeared to have blasted the ball into the nets.

But the ball was on the outside of the net and didn't count. The crowd's collective moan could have been heard as far away as Chicago.

Double Effect
The missed opportunity by the Cougars appeared to have a double effect. It momentarily caused a SIU-SW slump and gave the Bills renewed drive.

At 31 seconds into the fourth period, Logush booted one in way out on the field (at least 35 yards), and while the Cougars never stopped coming at the Bills, the ball game was over and Coach Bob Guelker's hopes of taking his kickers to Miami were also over.

Said Guelker: "We played our poorest game of the year. We didn't do the things we'd planned. We needed to play the game against them that we played early in November. However, you can say that I'm real proud of our boys. We've come a long way in five years."

When asked why Tom Galati and Denny Driscoll was being rested when the Bills scored PREVENTING A SCORE is SIU-SW's goalie Rick Benben in the Midwest Regional Soccer Tournament final Saturday at Cougar field which St. Louis University won 3-1. Tom Twellman (33) and Kevin Howe (18) of SIU-SW are ready to help clear the ball out.

who switched off and on in guarding Seery, were great on defense, as were Rich Neitzert and Tom Galati, Denny Werner, Mark Demling, Bob Matteson and Dale Harmon were also great on defense for the Bills.

It was the fifth straight time the Bills have defeated SIU-SW. "Good luck, Bills," said Coach Bob Guelker, after the game.

It's hard to say exactly where the tradition of cutting the Wedding Cake came from. It is known that food has always played an important role in the ceremonies of Marriage and Engagement.

In old Spain, a girl discouraged an offer of Marriage by giving the young man a pumpkin. In the old country of Thuringia, a girl would refuse proposals by serving the boy friend sausage. And in Poland, serving goose was a sure sign that the girl would say "no."

Today we have the Wedding Cake and the "Cutting of the Cake" will be one of your most precious memories. To make this part of your Wedding run smoothly, cut the cake immediately after the Ceremony. Too many times, young couples get in a motorcade of toasting horns while the guests are waiting for the traditional cake-cutting. Or they get so wrapped up in taking pictures that the guests are left impatiently waiting to greet the Bride and Groom.

At Hudson's, our Bridal Department is trained and equipped to offer such helpful suggestions and answer any questions you might have regarding Your Wedding, and above all, a sympathetic understanding of the problems which beset the Bride-to-Be. Do come in soon.

Bartylak Regains Law License

Joseph R. Bartylak, former Madison County state's attorney, has regained his license to practice law, it was announced Thursday afternoon.

His application for reinstatement was approved by the Illinois Supreme Court.

He surrendered his license voluntarily in 1967 after he was reigned as state's attorney after pleading guilty to charge of official misconduct.

Bartylak was indicted after an audit showed a shortage of funds in his office. He said at the time that the money was used for salary advances and was returned to the county treasurer two days after the audit.

Trojan Cagers Victorious Over McKinley by 76-54

The Madison High School basketball Trojans went to St. Louis Friday and returned with a 76-54 victory over McKinley, rated as one of the powers in the St. Louis Public School League.

"We were down 14 points in the third quarter when I sent in Quincy Canada (6-6) and Sam Byrd (6-3)," Trojan Coach Larry Graham commented.

"We needed height against McKinley and this seemed to turn the tide. Canada hit seven of eight free throws and scored nine points. Byrd was good for four-out-of-four free throws and scored 12 points.

"Both of these fellows did all this in about nine minutes."

"We tried a variety of defensive actions against McKinley but it was a 2-1-2 zone that shut them off. We hit 27 out of 68 attempts from the floor which gave up about 40%, and we nailed 22 out of 36 free throws which was 61%. I don't feel this is too bad for early in the season."

The Trojans had an 18-15 lead the first quarter but were behind at the half 35-28. The Trojans then got hot and outscored McKinley the third quarter 17-9, and again in the fourth quarter 31-10 for the win.

Ed Chandler was the Trojan high point man with 27. Other Trojans scoring were Larry Evans 9, Roger Glasper 7, Emory Wilson 6, Terrance Young 5, and Vernell Glasper 1.

McKinley committed 27 fouls and Madison had 19.

The rebounds were about even though the Trojans had a 48-38 edge. Byrd and Young snagged 10 each.

The Trojans will face Percy Wells, 6-4 guard of St. Louis Central on the Madison court at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday. Wells is rated as one of the top players in the entire St. Louis area and averages more than 30 points a game.

MORE ABOUT Two Slain

That the owner of a car-towed to the Havana garage in Madison Nov. 11 from Bissell Street at Lee Wright Homes—had been missing from University City since Nov. 3.

The 1965 green auto had been towed to the lot as an abandoned car and efforts to locate its owner, Mr. Connors, had been unsuccessful.

Mrs. Mabel Connors, his mother and two of his aunts arrived at the Venice police department at 1:30 p.m. Friday and requested that the car be searched for clues to his whereabouts.

Officers drove the women to the garage's storage lot, where George Havana owner opened the car. He removed the back seat and reported a body could be seen in the trunk.

The women were returned to the police station and the trunk was pried open.

Mr. Connors was found with his hands tied behind his back with an electric cord. A plastic bag over his head had been tied with another cord. There was dried blood inside the plastic bag.

Madison and Venice police, federal agents and St. Louis police inspected the body and the car. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner Werner.

An autopsy showed death had been caused by strangulation and a wound to Conner's face, apparently from being struck with a blunt instrument.

Mrs. Connors identified her son's body.

Mr. Connors had a St. Louis police record dating back to 1966, when he was sentenced to prison for robbery. Since then, he had been arrested on charges of assault, intent to kill, flourishing a weapon and resisting arrest.

St. Louis officers said a possible explanation for his death may be a struggle for profits in drug use near the Pruitt-Igoue public housing complex. He was suspected

Man Cut, 2 Women Hit By Group of 4 Youths

Billy Hollenbeck, 1013 Madison Ave., Madison, reported his left hand was cut with a knife when he, his wife, Vickie, and his sister, Miss Jean Hollenbeck of the same address, were beaten by four young men at Fourth Street and Madison Avenue, Madison, at 9:15 p.m. Thursday.

He told police that he, his wife and his sister were walking on Madison Avenue when the youths called to them and threatened them. The young men started a fight during which one displayed a knife and cut Hollenbeck's hand. A mother struck him with a fist and a third youth knocked him down he alleged. When the two women attempted to help him, they allegedly were struck several times.

A Madison officer noticed the disturbance and halted the fight. There were no arrests but Madison juvenile authorities are investigating the incident. Hollenbeck declined treatment.

Injured as Motorcycle, Car Collide in Madison

John Dezan Jr., 26, of 721 Washington Ave., Madison, was injured when his motorcycle and the car of Dorothy E. Spicer, 2025 Fifth St., East Madison, collided at Greenwood Street and Edwardsville Road at 2:40 p.m. Thursday.

He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was treated for abrasions to his left arm and leg. X-rays were taken and he was released.

of narcotics involvement.

Mr. McAllister may have been killed because someone suspected he was a police informer, authorities said during the weekend.

He reported to have furnished information leading to the arrest of four persons and the recovery of articles stolen in ten burglaries, including firearms, trading stamp books, comics, jewelry, coin collections, radios and cameras.

A stock clerk for the Hoy Shoe Co., St. Louis, he was a son-in-law of Coulterville Police Chief James Tyler. His wife, Marcella, 20, had last seen him three weeks ago. She said he was released after serving two-and-a-half year term in Missouri for burglary.

The funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at a Collinsville funeral home, with burial at St. John's Cemetery, Collinsville.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McAllister of Collinsville; four brothers, Jerry of Caseyville and Wendell, Maynard and Jerry, all of Collinsville; and two sisters, Mrs. James (Sharon) Lee of Caseyville and Miss Melinda McAllister of Collinsville.

Officers drove the women to the garage's storage lot, where George Havana owner opened the car. He removed the back seat and reported a body could be seen in the trunk.

The women were returned to the police station and the trunk was pried open.

Mr. Connors was found with his hands tied behind his back with an electric cord. A plastic bag over his head had been tied with another cord. There was dried blood inside the plastic bag.

Madison and Venice police, federal agents and St. Louis police inspected the body and the car. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner Werner.

An autopsy showed death had been caused by strangulation and a wound to Conner's face, apparently from being struck with a blunt instrument.

Mrs. Connors identified her son's body.

Mr. Connors had a St. Louis police record dating back to 1966, when he was sentenced to prison for robbery. Since then, he had been arrested on charges of assault, intent to kill, flourishing a weapon and resisting arrest.

St. Louis officers said a possible explanation for his death may be a struggle for profits in drug use near the Pruitt-Igoue public housing complex. He was suspected to reduce iron ore to iron in a blast furnace.

5. Installation of a smokeless excess blast furnace gas bleeder-burner stack, at a cost of about $110,000, will be completed this month. It is the final project in the company's state-approved program for reducing air contaminants at its two blast furnaces.

6. Installation of a $150,000, high-efficiency, baghouse cleaner system to collect dust from the sinter breaker exhaust was completed last month.

This facility is at the sinter plant, where Granite City Steel converts otherwise worthless waste materials—blast furnace flue dust, rolling mill scale, fine iron ore, coke "dross"—into porous lumps of sinter which can then be recycled in the blast furnaces.

7. A high-energy, high-efficiency Venturi scrubber system will be installed at the sinter plant, at an estimated cost of $1,500,000, to clean emissions from the main windbox and the pug mill exhaust. This system is now being engineered.

The agreement between the Environmental Protection Agency and Granite City Steel calls for the company to establish air pollution operation and maintenance work rules for coke ovens, blast furnaces, sinter plant, basic oxygen furnaces, blooming mill, hot strip mill and steam generator plant.

Granite City Steel has also agreed to maintain a research and development program to evaluate the effectiveness of its existing air pollution control failities and, in cooperation with other companies, to investigate and develop new technology and processes.

The $150,000 University of Illinois environmental studies scholarship fund will be created in three $50,000 installments from Granite City Steel on or before Jan. 3, 1972; Jan. 2, 1972; and July 1, 1972.

The scholarship fund will be established at the University of Illinois because of the engineering and law schools there and serving as hearing officer for the case.

Herbert Caplan of Chicago, an assistant attorney general, was assigned to prosecute the EPA's case.

Perfect Attendance by Sen. Vadalabene

Illinois State Senator Sam M. Vadalabene (D) announced today that nominating petitions are being circulated in his behalf.

He will file for re-election from the recently redrawn district on Dec. 13. He formerly served in the House of Representatives.

"Since the voters gave me the honor of representing them in the Senate in 1970, I have tried to show my appreciation in every way I know how," Vadalabene said. "For me, being a senator has been a full-time job."

"I'm particularly proud of keeping intact my perfect attendance record in Springfield."

"During my two terms in the House of Representatives, I saw how important it was to keep in close touch with everything that is going on at the State Capitol."

"But there is a lot for me to do back home in my district, too," Vadalabene added. "The people of the district have a right to be able to reach their senator whenever they feel he can be of service. I have kept myself available to my constituents day and night."

"In seeking re-election, I want to build on this record. We have to improve our fiscal procedures and insure better reporting to the people."

"I think that all of us can create a better climate of confidence on the part of the people in their state government; that will be my main objective. I am sure that will also be uppermost in the minds of my fellow Democrats."

Vadalabene was the first elected public official ever to receive the Crusade of Courage Award from the Illinois State Chamber of the Knights of Columbus.

In 1969, he also received the outstanding citizen award from the Edwardsville Association of Commerce and Industry and the outstanding legislator award from the Illinois Association of County Superintendents of Schools.

In World War II, Sen. Vadalabene served in Europe with the 28th Infantry Division, winning the combat infantryman's badge, three bronze stars, the EAME ribbon, the good conduct medal and a presidential unit citation.

Accidents Here Exceed 5 a Day in November

An average of more than five accidents per day occurred in the Quad-City area during November; 165 mishaps were reported to police and 78 persons were injured. Five persons lost their lives in accidents here last month.

The total number of accidents is the highest for any month since July, when 165 were reported. There were 104 injuries and four fatalities that month.

The November statistics bring the total number of accidents for the first 11 months of this year to 1,719, well below the 1,890 reported in the same period of last year.

The number of injuries in the period likewise is lower than in 1970-1971, while the number of fatalities jumped from 22 in the first 11 months of 1970 to 45 in the same period this year.

State Executive Reorganization Plan in Spring

By RAY SERATI
Copy News Service

Springfield—Reorganization of the executive branch of Illinois state government continues to move ahead.

John F. Briggs, former Department of Mental Health deputy director, has been named coordinator in the governor's office for executive reorganization. Briggs has been serving as deputy director of the Public Aid Department.

In appointing Briggs, Gov. Richard D. Ogilvie said he would work with present staff members in an attempt to streamline the executive branch of Illinois government.

Gov. Ogilvie has announced that he will submit the plan to the General Assembly, a complete reorganization plan for the executive branch of state government.

Under the new constitution, the governor may submit such a plan by April 1, and members of the General Assembly have 60 days either to veto the move or let it become effective.

Presently there are 100 agencies, departments and boards that report to the governor. Ogilvie would like to cut this down to about 10 such reportings.

By doing this, Ogilvie said this would create a true cabinet for the governor's office.

He maintains that by cutting the number of departments, the governor could keep a firm grip on the day-to-day operations of state government.

The governor says a mere reshuffling of present departments and agencies will not do. There must be a well conceived, top-to-bottom change of the structure.

In the last 10 years, several new departments have been created. These include Public Aid, Children and Family Services, Local Government Affairs, Law Enforcement, Corrections and Business and Economic Development.

In all, there are 21 departments. But it would be difficult to precisely number the remaining agencies, such as the State Fair Agency, Civil Defense Agency and Military and Naval Department.

Simon Calls for Better Counseling, Placement Services for the Blind

By LT. GOV. PAUL SIMON
Let me share from a letter I received recently from Bob Greenberg of Chicago:

"Dear Lieutenant Governor Simon, I am one of the people collecting unemployment who wants to work."

"I do not mean nor do I want to cause trouble for anyone. I just want to get started and want an opportunity where I can utilize my ability and use my education."

"Currently my wife is supporting me. I want to be able to support my wife and would be happy to accept any position that was offered to me."

The author graduated on the Dean's list from the University of Illinois with studies in radio and Spanish. He spent two summers at the Montrose Urban Progress Center in Chicago, where he produced audiotapes of public relations films.

He has been a news editor, sportscaster and reported for various radio stations. He conducts radio interviews; he has interviewed me. His interviews have been selected for broadcast by the American Forces Radio and TV Services to our armed forces overseas.

Bob Greenberg is a talented, concerned man who wants to work. But he is also blind.

A Division of Vocational Rehabilitation counselor reportedly told him that counselors save blind people until last, because they are hardest to place.

Bob has been told that his wife's willingness to work makes his placement a lower priority, regardless of his desires to be self-reliant.

Although blind operators have been building and maintaining high-powered radio transmitters for decades—and through more than 500 blind persons hold amateur licenses—it was two months ago that a court in Iowa declared the Federal Communications Commission's refusal to allow blind applicants to take first and second degree operator's examinations to be discriminatory.

Until that time, applicants had to take the examinations in longhand, an obvious problem for blind persons.

Bob is now enrolled at the Institute of Broadcast Arts in Chicago and hopes to take his first class examination in about three months.

But his difficulties, and those of hundreds of other blind persons, point to the need for better counseling and placement services for our state's blind citizens.

Blind people who feel they have suffered discrimination should contact my office or the Illinois Congress of the Blind, 1790-D West Estes, Chicago.

We must help all people fulfill themselves to the extent of their talents and abilities.

Santa and His Subordinate Clauses Getting Ready for Holiday Season

We are indebted to correspondent Frank Macomber for helping assemble a few anecdotes on the humorous side of the upcoming holiday season.

The late Bennett Cerf, a bon vivant famed for his hearty and at times off-beat humor, liked to tell Yule stories about other people.

The late Ogden Nash, whose poetry usually carried a chuckle and a message in the same lines, sometimes grew nostalgic when he wrote about Christmas.

Humorists like the late Robert Benchley, Stephen Leacock and George Ade poked satirical but good-natured fun at Christmas and all the traditional trimmings that go with it.

Following is a sampling of such holiday humor.

Cerf liked to regale his friends with the story of how Florence Ziegfeld, the Folies producer, bought trinkets and baubles for his beautiful bevy of girls very early in the Christmas season. But he paid for them, if at all, very late.

"One day he instructed his treasurer to hop over to Tiffany's to buy a diamond bracelet for his leading lady," Cerf recalled. "The treasurer argued that he could pick up a bracelet wholesale for $1,000 less."

"What's the difference?" inquired Ziegfeld cheerfully. "I'm not going to pay for it anyhow."

And then, continued Cerf, there was a judge who paid a visit to Kris Kringle's workshop at the North Pole. Claus' helpers "Subordinate Clauses."

If that one escaped you, don't worry. A lot of Cerf's humor had an escape hatch.

Perhaps Cerf's favorite Yule story was about the lady who fell ill with a virus on the very day she was to attend a mammoth pre-Christmas department store sale, along with a legion of other shoppers.

Tearfully she agreed to let her reluctant husband go in her place.

"If you have trouble getting to the counter," she advised, handing him the shopping list, "just ask like a lady!"

Cerf recalled a child prodigy movie star who told his mother: "I sat on Santa Claus' lap today, mommy, and I gave him my autograph."

Humorist Ed Condon writes that his wife at last has completed knitting a pair of socks for him. Originally they were to have been a 1964 Christmas present.

"They're magnificent," Condon says, "but just a little tight under the arms."

Living Conditions of American Indians Are Improving But Their Isolation Should End

Hearings by a Senate committee on the organization of the Bureau of Indian Affairs bring to mind that there has been more than a year since the President set this much-maligned agency on a new course.

The improvement has been more subtle than dramatic, but at least under Indian Commissioner Louis R. Bruce the bureau is approaching its problems with less of an image of a "great white father" dictating the fate of America's 425,000 reservation Indians.

Less and less are tribal leaders forced to deal with their government across a cultural barrier. Nevertheless, progress has been agonizingly slow in implementing a more fundamental aspect of the President's program—encouraging Indians on reservations to assume more responsibility for administering services and programs paid for by the federal government.

Increased administrative responsibility has been offered as an alternative to the drastic step of terminating the special status of Indians and Indian property, a proposition which Mr. Nixon has rejected.

Efforts to make Indians more responsible for their own future have been overshadowed by demands of activist groups, especially younger Indians living in cities, for a nebulous kind of "justice" for the American Indian.

The danger is that steps taken in the name of justice could, in the end, work an injustice by perpetuating the idea that Indians belong in a special category as citizens. Their needs may well be special, but the goal in meeting them must be to impart the same privileges and duties as those of all U.S. citizens.

Indian leaders have come to a crossroads demanding difficult choices. Many of them are fiercely protective of their cultural identity and fear losing what values most if they are forced into the mold of the predominant American society. Yet, they and their children face a future as museum-pieces if their dependence on paternalistic government does not eventually end.

Many immigrants from Europe and Asia have kept their cultural traditions alive in America, but they have done so while assuming the same political and economic responsibilities as all citizens.

The Indians who have availed themselves

Copley News Service

1771 — Six Massachusetts Bay Colony men, already active by 1771 in the cause of colonial independence, and destined to take particularly active parts in the formation of the republic, were Samuel Adams, John Hancock, John Adams, Robert Treat Paine, Elbridge Gerry and Nathaniel Gorham.

All six were members of the Continental Congress for certain periods.

Five were to sign the Declaration of Independence, and Hancock, then president of the Congress, as the first signer.

Gorham was not then in the Congress, but served in 1782, 1783 and in 1785-1786, when he was its president.

Gorham and Gerry were members of the U. S. Constitutional Convention in 1787.

John Adams became vice-president in both administrations of George Washington, and succeeded him as President of the United States in 1796.

He also was to see his son, John Quincy Adams, inaugurated as the sixth President in 1825.

Gerry also served as vice-president, under James Madison, the fourth President, in his second administration, beginning in 1813, but died in office in 1814, aged 70.

1821 — Beginning of Anglo-American settlement of Texas. Moses Austin, who had received a Spanish government permit in January to settle 300 families in an area of Texas between the Brazos and Colorado rivers, died before he could proceed with the plan.

His son, Stephen Fuller Austin, a Yale graduate who had been associated with his father in settlements in Missouri, led the group of settlers in December to what became San Felipe de Austin, on the lower Brazos River.

By 1825, the settlement was of educational opportunities to become spokesmen for their people, and who have attained high positions in the Indian bureau, must help fellow Indians onto the path of compromise between old and modern ways, between dependency and self-sufficiency.

Cash payments or other compensation for sins of the U. S. government against the Indians a century ago are not a long-range solution to Indian problems. The answer would seem to be in ending the isolation of this proud people—and grafting their rich heritage securely onto the tree of American society.

The biggest objection to depending on the school of experience is that no one ever graduates.

Granite City and State on Verge of Dramatic Progress in Fight to Curb Pollution of Air

The problem of air pollution is far from new. While preparing a "25 Years Ago" article last week, we ran across a Press-Record editorial discussing steel industry flyash here.

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency dramatized the subject last week with a report that one of the Granite City sampling stations has recorded the second worst record on particulate matter among 73 Illinois stations, exceeded only by Chicago Heights. It added that there has been a steady decrease in particulate concentrations and sulfates in the Quad-Cities and Madison-St. Clair Counties, but called for further progress.

The Granite City board headed by Henry Bieniecki has been more aggressive than most and plans a full-time anti-pollution staff as soon as funding arrangements are worked out with the federal government this month.

In addition, the Illinois Pollution Control Board has drawn up regulations so stringent that they could make this state No. 1 in the nation in its efforts to upgrade air quality. Hearings are set for Dec. 14-17 in the Field Museum, Chicago, Dec. 18 at the Peoria City Hall and 10 a.m. Dec. 22 in the University Center of the local Southern Illinois University campus.

The 101-page regulations which have been proposed deal with standards and limitations on visual emission, particulate emission, sulfur, organic material emission, carbon monoxide emission, nitrogen oxides emission, odors and open burning. Proposed by the EPA and the Institute for Environmental Quality, they are to be adopted—either the present or revised form—by the Illinois Board by Jan. 31.

Perhaps partly due to its relative inaction prior to Governor Ogilvie's election in 1968, Illinois has made dramatic progress in the pollution field. It now appears to have set into motion sufficient agencies and programs to ensure continued rapid progress during the foreseeable future.

There is much laudable in what is being accomplished. It will remain imperative during the air pollution crackdown that similar progress be made statewide and nationwide, so that manufacturers and other polluters in one city or region do not gain a competitive advantage over those of another city or region.

SAD THAT COURAGEOUS CITIZENS ENDANGERED

To the Editor:

What is the state of affairs in this land of ours when concerned citizens — upstanding members of a community who band together to better the environment in which they live — are threatened, spied upon and harassed?

What is it when an official contacts one of these citizens and gives him details of a particular meeting in which certain officials and persons supposedly upholding the law were discussing the future deaths of some of these citizens?

This same official later informed that citizen that when the grand jury investigations died down, in three to four weeks there would be danger for David Moss, health inspector; Louis Whitsell, Nameoki Township supervisor, and a third person.

On Monday and Tuesday, threats were made on an entire family, including a three-month-old child, by Nameoki Township supervisor, and a third person.

A report was made to the Pontoon Police Department. They have denied getting any reports of threats.

The police have been following some of these citizens to attempt their homes.

It would be a sad and heart-breaking state of affairs if the present situation is allowed to continue.

Sad indeed, when those with the courage to step forward and take their risks, believing that the courts of this country will see that justice is done, then are left to contend with irresponsible persons.

Who then do they turn to?

If anything should happen to any of these citizens, let it prey upon the conscience of those who believed the mayor of Pontoon Beach when he said, "It's dirty politics."

PONTON BEACH WOMAN, LANDOLT DERELICT IN ROADS WITH 708 BOARD

To the Editor:

The Madison County Board of Supervisors removed Sylvester Bugger from the county Health 708 Board by resolution and replaced him with Mrs. June Kluge.

Assistant State's Attorney Marshall Smith had asked the Circuit Court to determine whether the two had the right to a seat on the 708 Board.

Apparently, the law to which Chairman Landolt referred in his statement is that "no persons with the same occupation cannot be appointed to the 708 Board," the Madison County Board of Supervisors established the County Community Mental Health Board.

The Board members 708 refer to the state law which made provision for county ordinances such as ours.

And the ordinance provides that the county tax monies are to be levied and used in accordance with statutes and that the board shall have certain powers in consultation with and advisement with the State of Illinois, Department of Mental Health.

The Madison County ordinance reads in part:

"Sec. 2. Composition: There is hereby established a community health board which shall administer the act relating to community health facilities, services and such board shall consist of seven members appointed by the chairman of the Madison County Board of Supervisors."

"Said board shall, as nearly as possible, be representative of interested groups of the community such as local health organizations, medical societies, local welfare boards, hospital boards, school boards, and lay associations concerned with mental retardation, as well as labor, business and civic groups or the general public."

Notice that the ordinance does not specifically state that two members of the 708 Board cannot have the same occupation.

In fact, the contrary is indicated.

cated if the two (or more) members with the same occupation are representative of professionals working in local health departments, medical societies, local welfare boards, hospital boards, etc.

Of the eleven specified categories are professional groups or lay associations concerned with mental health or mental retardation, one is representative of school boards, and the other four deal with labor, business and civic groups or the general public.

In the history of the 708 Board, appointed by Chairman Landolt, only scant attention has been given to representativeness as indicated by the ordinance.

The first chairman was a member of the county board of supervisors and was a used car salesman. Perhaps he was representing the used cars in the county.

The Madison County Mental Health Society registered complaints with Chairman Landolt about the lack of professional representativeness on the 708 Board without visible results on his part.

While his sudden interest in maintaining some sort of balance should not go unnoticed, commended his dereliction of duty in failing to consider the intent of the ordinance since its passage should not go unnoticed.

Similarly, the suddenness with which the county board of supervisors passed a resolution dismissing Mr. Bugger can only testify to a lack of genuine concern or ignorance of the ordinance on the part of those who supported such a resolution.

Finally, we citizens are left to ponder the question of where does the county board of supervisors get its legal advice?

Or, where was Marshall Smith when the resolution was passed—or is his advice sought only when it is convenient?

SUPERVISOR OVERRIDES POLL JUDGE SUGGESTIONS

To the Editor:

It is true that election judges were not paid by two levels board elections in Nameoki Township Precinct 7.

Louis Whitsell states that "we're going to have trouble with the two who work in the election judges' office. The people are afraid they won't be paid." This is a lot of bunk.

I want to state that "not being paid" does not worry us; it is like money in the bank, only without interest.

I believe using an excuse like Mr. Whitsell uses about getting judges is just a way of easing his conscience.

In Nameoki Precinct 7, I was a judge. I say "because" my name did not appear on the list of election judges printed in the Press-Record this past week.

I was never notified of the fact that I would not have to appear at the polls at 5:30 a.m. on the morning of the elections.

There also was another judge left off the roster, who was not notified that she was not to appear at the polls on the day of the election.

It is the function of the Democratic and Republican committeemen to recommend judges.

The Democratic precinct committeeman made his recommendation in writing to the supervisor. On this list, my name appeared as No. 2 in line and his recommendations were overridden.

A precinct committeeman is an elected official and works closer and on a more intimate basis with his voters in his precinct.

I would like to know why he should put so much thought and effort into his work when his recommendations are overridden? The Democratic Precinct Committee would not be aware of the changes in the judges' roster until he read it in the Press-Record.

Highway Issue by Roos Not Valid

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

Supervisor Roos of St. Louis County is clutching at a straw when he contends that an Illinois location for the new metropolitan airport would require the expenditure of as much as $500,000,000 in new highway construction in St. Louis County.

Mr. Roos must know he has overdone the highway construction issue and, moreover, that he has sought to isolate the issue as a factor in an effort to bring into his work when his recommendations are overridden? The Democratic Precinct Committee would not be aware of the changes in the judges' roster until he read it in the Press-Record.

In fact, the contrary is indicated.

Location in Illinois remains preferable because that offers the best airport site. It would provide the greatest economic stabilization in the metropolitan area.

And Illinois is prepared to invest heavily in the project as Missouri is not. Now, what other objections can Supervisor Roos find to put the airport issue out of focus?

Lead, Asbestos Pollution Study

By JOAN MURARO
Capley News Service

Springfield — Comprehensive reports based on intensive recent studies of lead and asbestos pollution are among a series of findings expected to be published soon by the Institute for Environmental Quality. Publication is likely within two weeks.

Reportedly, the findings on lead will show that unless lead levels from automobile exhausts are controlled, there will be no significant reduction in constantly rising amounts of lead pollution, not only in the air but in soil and water as well.

The federal government has already taken a position, however, that states may not take any action to control such exhaust emissions.

The state's Pollution Control Board has already set standards regarding asbestos usage, based in part on earlier Institute studies. Those standards, according to an Institute spokesman, have been called the "most comprehensive" in the U. S. on the subject.

Also nearing completion, but not expected for release quite so soon as the lead and asbestos study results, are findings on noise pollution levels, sanitary landfill requirements, deep well disposal, septic tank regulations and radiation standards.

The sanitary landfill study has reportedly been largely completed, and the only remaining is to put the findings in proper legal form.

On the question of noise pollution, standards are still under discussion for stationary sources such as factories and rail yards, where objectionable levels travel far beyond source boundaries, as well as for airports and for transportation generally as a source of noise pollution.

A hearing date is expected to be set within a few days on an Institute recommendation that all alcoholic and soft drinks sold in bottles and cans be packaged only in returnable, deposit - carrying containers which can be re-cycled.

However, some legislators reportedly feel that question is beyond the powers of a regulatory body such as the PCB, and indications are the entire question of deposit versus no-deposit bottles and cans has already taken a position, how Assembly during the January session.

Grand Jury to Meet Dec. 9, Has Heard 22

A grand jury probe into alleged irregularities in the operation of the village of Pontoon Beach was adjourned last week until 10 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 9.

Heard last week were Pontoon Beach Chief of Police Harold Denham, and Assistant Chief Roswell "Junior" Bennett, and Roger Elble, Wood River Township supervisor.

Witnesses now total 22. Several additional persons who testified to the jury have received threatening telephone calls, including one directed at the entire Ellsworth family in the village.

Mrs. Barbara Ellsworth, 19, said a man called her at 9 a.m. Monday and threatened the entire family, including her husband, Michael Ellsworth, and the families of her father-in-law, Harry N. Ellsworth, and her brother-in-law, Harry Ellsworth Jr.

The call was received on an Ellsworth Concrete Co. extension in Michael Ellsworth's mobile home on the company lot, 3883 Lake St.

The caller asked, "Is this the Ellsworths?" and Mrs. Ellsworth responded that it was, she said.

"I'm calling to tell you that you Ellsworths better watch out. We've been watching you and you better look out," the man said. The caller added "I'm the one that threatened Sister Fuzz," she said. "Sister Fuzz" is the nickname given Sister Cornelia Hawkins, Pontoon Beach juvenile officer and part-time police dispatcher.

Sister Cornelia has testified to the grand jury on two occasions and has reported several threats on her life.

Mrs. Ellsworth said the man concluded, "You better keep your mouth shut because we'll be watching you." He then hung up the telephone. She described the caller's voice as that of a man in his

November Rainfall Far Below Normal

Rainfall in the Quad-City area during November totaled 1.15 inches, far below the 2.37 inches normal for the month. The total for the month was slightly above the rainfall for October of 1.11 inches.

The rainfall brings the total for the first 11 months of the year to 20.81 inches. The figure in the same period of 1970 was 28.59 inches and the normal rainfall here through November is 32.48 inches.

40s. "It sounded like he may have had something over the mouthpiece of the phone because the voice sounded muffled," she reported.

Other witnesses who reported threatening calls last week were Chuck Farmley, owner of Chuck's Tavern, 4001 Kesselberg Lane, and Floyd D. Moss, village health inspector.

Moss has been one of the leaders in the opposition to the village's governing group, headed by Thomas L. Stacioli, board president.

"I've seen many things that disturb me and I would like to see some corrections made," Moss said.

He said many of the charges that have been leveled publicly against the village are not true, in his opinion, including allowing prostitution and gambling to thrive in Pontoon Beach.

"I think this whole thing has been blown out of proportion and I hate to see Pontoon Beach get a black eye and labeled a 'sin city,'" Moss related.

"I do accuse the village of misappropriation of funds for paving several private business parking lots and of a conflict of interest for using Fred Rezer (a trustee) to do village wedding jobs. But I think most of the other charges are being exaggerated and many of them are not true," Moss commented.

Moss said he did not know if allegations of harassment and misconduct by officers are justified. He commented, "Any time you take a man off the street without training and give him a badge and a gun, you could be asking for trouble."

He said he believes one officer continued to be paid and to receive a clothing allowance even though no longer on active duty.

He further charged that a village area businessman has a receipt for $355 which he paid, and that the businessman tried to have several traffic charges against a relative voided.

Moss said the same man had a receipt for funds allegedly paid to have his business parking lot paved but did not actually pay for the work.

The Christmas business is in full swing. The Garden Shop is humming, the live trees and grave coverings are in and most of our merchandise that was tied up in the New York dock strike has now arrived. In the Super Market, all the special items for Christmas baking are really moving. The "makings" for fruit cakes, the holly, etc., are kept in good supply. We ran out temporarily of pecan meal, but we have more coming in at any moment.

The Tri-City Shrine club is anxious to secure blood donors for the Shrine Burns Hospital in Cincinnati. We just sent another badly burned local child to this hospital for treatment. Some of these cases require tremendous quantities of blood. If you would like to give to this worthy cause (blood), see Avery and get one of the cards. You will be contacted and an appointment set up at your convenience to give at our local St. Elizabeth's Hospital. If you can't give blood but wish to help in this project, $5.00 will buy a pint of blood. See Avery for further details.

We have a great selection of Xmas gift boxes this year. There are various styles and they come in a variety of colors and designs. These are empty boxes that you can use to put gifts in.

If you haven't noticed we now have heated air curtains on our front doors. These are designed to do two things. Keep the cold winter air from blowing in and also to solve our front end problem of the cold snack bar. Now you can enjoy your coffee in comfort regardless of the wind and much convenience from Schermers. As we say, "Nothing is too good for a Schermer customer." And we really mean it.

No final decision has been made on how to implement a DuPage County court decision that 1972 county board elections should be held on the same dates as the others elections — March 21 for the primary and Nov. 7 for the general balloting. Madison County Clerk Eulalia Hotz is seeking a legal opinion.

The ruling was that a 1969 state law providing for separate elections for county board members, with a February primary and April final election, is unconstitutional.

The Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission moved Friday from 1214 West Main St., Collinsville, to 200 W. Main, Collinsville. The change was made to obtain more office room.

Gov. Ogilvie on Thursday vetoed a bill requiring judge candidates to run in party primary elections.

William M. Ebersold, Venice city clerk and president of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, said Friday he plans to run for re-election to the board. He and Lawrence Tolar and Morris Campbell are the only survivors among the board currently seated, two are deceased. A new five-man board was elected in June but has been barred from taking office while the others are appealing their ouster.

Garcia-Preloger Wedding At St. Margaret-Mary

MR. AND MRS. MANUEL GARCIA, whose marriage took place at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church. She is the former Miss Frances Preloger, a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Preloger of Granite City.

The Rev. Robert Becker officiated at a 10 a.m. wedding ceremony Nov. 20, at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church, uniting in marriage Miss Frances Preloger and Manuel Garcia.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Preloger, 67 Holiday Park. The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Mary Lou Garcia, 1857 Benton St., and Manuel Garcia Sr., 2706 N. 37th St., Fairmont City.

Gary Preloger escorted his sister down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She wore a bridal gown of white chiffon over tulle with a fitted bodice and flared skirt that ended in a chapel length train. Rows of delicate lace formed the high collar and, trimmed the long full sleeves and bodice front.

Miniature flowers were used to create the camelot headpiece that secured a triple tiered veil of imported illusion. She carried a nosegay of white carnations, baby breath, lily of the valley and white daisies centered with six scarlet Sweetheart roses.

Miss Cheryl Pikorialis, maid of honor, selected a formal length dress fashioned with a full skirt of sky blue chiffon, a deep blue velvet bodice and sleeves edged in white lace.

The honor attendant held a bouquet of white roses encircled with white and blue tinted carnations.

The groom chose Michael Starr as best man.

A wedding breakfast was given at Howard Johnson's Restaurant, Collinsville, for members of the wedding party immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Janice Isaak, a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Richard Coy, the groom's cousin, served as best man.

The honor attendant selected a lavender chiffon dress fashioned with an Empire waist.
